Process overview

Sort out your children's care arrangements

You can have a lawyer at Court. The Court may appoint a Lawyer for the Child. You may need to pay for some of these costs. Find out if you can get legal aid or use the Family Legal Advice Service. Call 0800 COURTS (0800 268 787) for more information. A Parenting Order is when the Court makes a decision about your children's care arrangements. If you don't agree Ask the Court to resolve your disagreement if you can't agree together (not urgent)? Apply to the Court If your case for an On Notice is now Parenting Order urgent, go to The Court processes your application. It gives a copy to the other parent to respond and tells you what to do next and by when The Court sets down a date and time for your court appearance. You will receive a copy of the other parent's response -Go to Court If agreement is If agreement is reached the Court not reached the can make a Final Court can Parenting Order schedule another court appearance The Court can

The Court will

tell you if you need to pay any costs and send you the Order

End

make a Final

Parenting

Order